

NSW Ambulance

excellence in care

Management of Low Acuity Presentations

Matthew Simpson, ACP

Paramedic Specialist – Intensive and Extended Care
NSW Ambulance [AUS]

Dr Paul Simpson

Director of Academic Program for Paramedicine at Western Sydney University
Paramedic Specialist – Intensive and Extended Care
NSW Ambulance [AUS]

NSW Ambulance

excellence in care

Disclaimer

“This presentation is academic work intended solely for information purposes and expresses the views, opinions and recommendations of the researcher. In no event should the content of this presentation be construed as an express or implied promise, guarantee or implication by or from the service or any of its officers, directors, employees, affiliates or other agents”.

excellence in care

[illegible][illegible]

NSW Ambulance

excellence in care

Community Paramedicine Clinical Service Delivery

	PCP (Low Acuity Paramedics)	CCP (Extended Care Paramedics)
No. Trained	Study 1000 Current 3000	Study 81 Current 120
Course Length	Half Day	46 weeks
Pathways	13	26
Pharmacology's	2	26
Procedures		18

NSW Ambulance

excellence in care

Method

Inclusion Criteria

Data collection

Data
Analysis

NSW Ambulance

excellence in care

Findings

NSW Ambulance

excellence in care

Limitations

NSW Ambulance

excellence in care

Recommendations

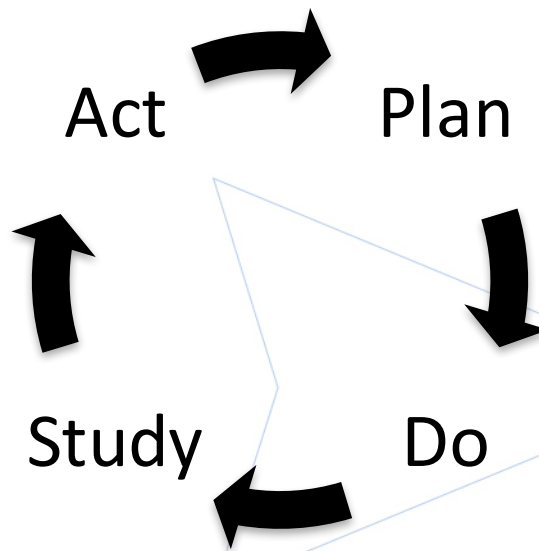

NSW Ambulance

excellence in care

LAP Evolution

NSW Ambulance

excellence in care

Acknowledgements

Dr Paul Simpson – Research Mentor

David Schmidt – Research Mentor

Therese Carroll – Epidemiologist

NSW Ambulance

Health Education & Training Institute NSW - Rural Directorate

Australian and New Zealand College of Paramedicine

